Subject: Re: An apartment

Hi Bryan,

I think I found a great apartment that you and I can share! Melanie Wu, our high school classmate, told me about it. It's on the same street as your office, so you can walk to work instead of riding your motorcycle. The place is probably a little more expensive than your current apartment (it's $15,000, right?), but we can share the rent and the space equally. Both of us will have a bedroom of the same size and a third as a guestroom. You can use the yard to do some gardening, and I'll have a place to park my car. I'm going to see the apartment myself this Saturday. Do you want to come along?

Best,
Tom

題目問的是如果 Bryan 同意合租，他每個月要付多少租金。廣告單列出一個月租金兩萬四千元，電子郵件中 Tom 提到可以平分租金，因此，Bryan 要負擔一萬兩千元，故選 B。
